FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BEAT THE TAX FILING DEADLINE

The Arizona Department of Revenue (DOR) will be up until midnight on Friday, April 15 for the convenience of taxpayers who decide to wait until the last minute to file. Tax returns, both state and federal, can be dropped off at the DOR office at 1600 West Monroe in Phoenix without leaving your car.

DOR employees will be in the parking lot accepting returns, both state and federal, from 5:00 until midnight on Friday to help last minute filers meet the deadline. They will also have extension forms available for those who don't manage to get their returns completed in time.

"Come meet us in the parking lot and drop off your returns," invited DOR Director Gale Garriott. "Of course, you could file from the convenience of your home and save your gas by e-filing. Information about e-filing is available on our website at www.azdor.gov."
